Expert witness and litigation support

ACIL Tasman consultants can assist as expert witnesses and provided litigation support in a wide range of third party access and trade practices cases.

Examples of past projects include:

- interchange fees in the EFTPOS network
- rail network access declaration
- competition issues in the inter-bank payment system
- pricing principles for setting interchange fees for credit and debit cards
- market power assessment
- petrol distribution
- economic definition of "market"
- energy pricing
- insurance claims for loss of business.

ACIL Tasman consultants are able, within strict ethical guidelines, to provide support as expert witnesses. Contact us to find out more.
