

Strategy development

Market economics - strategy development

ACIL Tasman provides advice on strategies to maximise returns from markets in Australia for companies and government.

Examples of ACIL Tasman's work include:

- advice for the Tasmanian government on industry opportunities based on supply of natural gas.
- potential economic relationship between Western Australia and Indonesia
- strategic review of the grains sector

See our market economics, policy and strategy project case studies.