

Infrastructure access arrangements

Infrastructure access arrangements

ACIL Tasman provides analytical support and advice on access arrangements to common infrastructure including rail, pipelines, ports, energy networks and other service facilities. Consultants can provide advice on application of Parts III and IV of the Trade Practices Act.

See our infrastructure access case studies.

Contact ACIL Tasman for more information about infrastructure programs, pricing and policy case studies.